Rezon8 Capital & Advisory Group teams up with Harvard-Stanford Collaborative Alumni Angels Group of Washington, DC, to fund Promising Ventures

RESTON, VA – February 5, 2015 – Rezon8 Capital & Advisory Group is pleased to announce it has teamed up with Harvard-Stanford Collaborative Alumni Angels Group of Washington, DC (CAAGDC) to jointly fund or co-invest in select promising ventures. The new joint venture's first investment is in KitoTech Medical, Inc., a Seattle-based emerging medical device company, in the amount of $500,000.

"As an alumnus of Harvard Business School and board member of the HBS Club of Washington, DC, I am very excited that Rezon8 has joined forces with CAAGDC to provide growth funding for early stage ventures. Together, we represent a high-impact group of investors who bring their tremendous entrepreneurial and business experience, business connections, and wallets to help entrepreneurs build successful enterprises," said K. Paul Singh, Founder and CEO of Rezon8 Capital & Advisory Group.

"CAAGDC is delighted to team up with Paul's Rezon8 Capital & Advisory Group in evaluating and funding select companies with high-growth potential at reasonable valuations. CAAGDC and Rezon8 share a similar investment philosophy of seeking out investment opportunities where we can be early, strategic, and meaningful. Our joint resources will allow us to assume the role of lead investor in certain funding situations," said Imre Eszenyi, Founder and Chair of CAAGDC.
